

It's all about Science and Math

Open House Days

Georgia Tech College of Sciences

High school students (and their guests) who are interested in learning about undergraduate degree programs in the College of Sciences at Georgia Tech are encouraged to attend an "It's all about Science and Math" open house.

Visitors will learn about opportunities in biology, bio-chemistry, chemistry, mathematics, earth and atmospheric sciences, physics, and psychology; learn about admission requirements, attend a class, and tour campus.

Information sessions are held Wednesdays (for groups/class visits) and Fridays (for individual/guest visits) in the fall and spring terms. To participate, sign up for a GT College of Sciences' Academic Session at:

<http://www.scienceandmath.gatech.edu>

Agenda

10:00—Introduction to science and math undergraduate programs at GT

11:00—Attend a science or math class with a host, meet a professor

12:00—Lunch with College of Sciences faculty, students and advisors

1:00-3:00—Admission and financial aid information and campus tour

Questions? Please contact Dr. Cameron Tyson, Assistant Dean, cam.tyson@cos.gatech.edu or 404-385-0418

Especially for

Students with an offer of admission to a GT science or math degree program are encouraged to attend one of the College of Sciences EXPLORE! visitation weekends in February or April, each year. Invitations to EXPLORE! will be sent via email once offers of admission are made.
